OVER L. D. S.
IN FAST GAME

Weber Normal college added another victory to their collection yesterday afternoon when they defeated the L. D. S. gridders of Salt Lake at Lorin Farr park by a score of 31 to 0. The Weber players started after honors in the first period and despite the heavy field played the visitors off their feet. Old Man Jinx was again present yesterday when the Weber gridders donned war togs. In five games played here this season four of the number have been played on muddy fields and the jinx seems to hold only when Weber plays. However, the game yesterday was a good exhibition of football with the Weber men displaying considerable class in spite of weather handicaps.

Lindsay, the speedy backfield star of the Weber team, scored the first touchdown in the first period when he circled the end for long gains. In the remaining periods Hickman, Croft, Critchlow and Jeppson carried the oval over the line, thus making the score 31 to 0. Four of the five chances at goals after touchdowns were missed.

Jeppson, Critchlow, Lindsay and Croft were the bright lights for the Weber players. For the invaders Hogan, Papworth and Bennion played good ball. Following the game the players were banqueted at Weber academy. Following the banquet a dance was held in honor of the visitors.

Gridiron King Will Prepare For Sleep
After Turkey Games

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Eastern football approaches the climax of the season tomorrow with the playing of one of the classic contests of the year and several games which will weigh heavily in the final alignment of the eleven. From many angles the Harvard-Princeton battle at Princeton will attract the interest of football followers in all parts of the country. As an annual struggle surrounded with traditions approaching the Yale-Princeton and the Harvard-Yale games, thousands of alumni will watch the scoring with keenest interest.

Harvard enters the game as logical favorite, but, nevertheless, surrounded with an air of football mystery. The crimson eleven is composed of fast, powerful players and the team has not yet been scored upon. The Harvard schedule has not been as trying as that of Princeton.

On occasions, however, the Crimson has shown great offensive strength with a well-equipped attack, both in the running and overhead advance of the ball.

Princeton Meets
Harvard Grid Men
In Eastern Classic

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Princeton is ready for Harvard. At the conclusion of today's brief signal practice Head Coach Roper expressed himself as satisfied with the condition of the men and promised that a fighting football team would take the field to do battle with Harvard tomorrow.

The Orange and Black adherents took the loss of Keck, the star left tackle philosophically. Bigler's showing in the last practice today was a finished performance and the Tigers' admirers are confident in his ability to fill Keck's shoes. Everywhere among Princeton backers there was evident the feeling expressed by "Big Bill" Edwards, captain of the 1919 championship eleven, that "Princeton cannot be beaten."

Hordes of alumni, newspaper correspondents and senior promenade guests flocked into town tonight for the week-end festivities which began with the Harvard-Princeton dual, musical clubs concert and the senior promenade tonight. There was little betting on the game. Only one large wager of $4,000 to $1,600 with Harvard on the long end was reported. The followers of Old Nassau were not slow in covering all the money offered at 5 to 2 and 2 to 1, however.

Eight Teams to Do Battle For Honors on Grid

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Eight teams will swing into action in the renewal of hostilities for the western conference football championship tomorrow with interest centering in the games between Michigan and Chicago at Chicago, and Illinois and Minnesota at Minneapolis. In the other two conference struggles, Ohio State, the only undefeated eleven in the race, will meet Purdue at Columbus, while Northwestern and Iowa will clash at Evanston.

The clash between Chicago and Michigan will mark the first real struggle be-

AL YOUNG FIT FOR FIGHT

Fistic fans who have been watching the workouts of Al Young and Willie St. Clair, the two fast lightweight boxers who are to meet at the armory on Armistice day, declare that the men are very evenly matched and that there are indications of a close battle for the intermountain championship. St. Clair's foot work, his quick action and his hard punches have won considerable praise. Young's methods of boxing are well known in Ogden and he retains his popularity with the fans who are watching him. They realize, these fans say, that he will have a hard contest but feel certain that victory will come to the Ogden boy.

Young is working out with Billy Johnson and Mike O'Brien, giving them all that they can stand each day. St. Clair's workouts are with Jim Wop Flinn of Chicago, and Kid Davis. These preliminary battles are taking place every afternoon at the Eagles' gym.

Promoter Charles Creighbaum said today that the interest in the bouts indicates that there will be a very large attendance at the events on Tuesday evening. He has arranged for a twelve-round championship event between Young and St. Clair, for a six-round semi-windup between Joe Wop Flinn and Jack Ryan, together with a four-round opener between Ogden boxers, Terry Keller, the light heavyweight, will be the referee.

Between these historic gridiron foes since Michigan dropped out of the conference following the season of 1905. Indications were tonight that 25,000 persons would witness the contest.

Injuries threaten to weaken Chicago as two of the most efficient linemen—Jackson and McGuire—probably will be out of the game.

The Illinois-Minnesota game is expected to develop into a desperate struggle with the odds slightly favoring Minnesota which upset calculations a week ago by trouncing Wisconsin. Experts believe that if Illinois can defeat Minnesota, the down-state players will have an excellent chance of winning from Ohio in the window of the season at Columbus, November 22.

Nothing short of a miracle will enable Purdue to defeat Ohio tomorrow. The Ohioans have been resting since the game with Michigan two weeks ago, and are reported to be on edge. Iowa is expected to win handily over Northwestern as the Hawkeyes are represented with one of the strongest teams in the history of the institution. The only game Iowa lost this season was to Illinois by a two point margin.

Ted Johnson Will Battle Distance Men
Here Armistice Day

Ted Johnson, former western champion, and during his prime one of the best long distance runners ever developed in Utah, will be one of the favorites picked to win the big six-mile race here next Tuesday. Johnson is a polished sprinter and has been in the running game since 1909. He has competed in races from coast to coast and has a long string of victories.

At Salt Lake in 1909 he won his first race from a fast field and set a state record of 57.45 in the ten-mile run. The record still stands. At Denver he has won the big ten-mile event in four out of six starts. At the world's fair at San Francisco in 1915 Johnson defeated some of America's greatest runners in the twelve-mile event. He won with yards to spare in this event and covered the distance in 1 hour 9 minutes.

Johnson was defeated at Denver last spring by Bob Martin and in the big race here Tuesday will contest with Martin for honors. Both men have first class records and it is expected that a race well worth seeing will please the fans on that day. Johnson will run unattached in the coming grid.

Jordan Upsets
Dope By Trimming
Ogden Hi Gridders

The dope sheet was upset yesterday when the Ogden High school gridders went down to defeat at Jordan, the score being 6 to 0. Both teams played good ball. Captain Leo Richards played star ball for the locals and was the big man of the day. While the game was played on a wet field the class of the Jordan men was bright at all stages.

The only score of the game came in the final period when B. Gardner squirmed through the Ogden line for a score. Goal was missed. Ogden made first down but once in the first quarter.

East Defeats Granite.
East High school gridders continued their winning streak yesterday when they defeated Granite, 33 to 0. The Leopards started off with a rush in the first period and displayed considerable class throughout the entire game. Coach Romney's men were on no time in danger of being scored on and by winning totaled 374 points for the season.

West High Wins.
West High defeated Davis High at Kayville yesterday, by a score of 2 to 0. The only score of the game was made in the third period when a safety was made by the winners. Coach Christensen's men played fine ball throughout and while the Davis grid stars also played well the Panthers had the edge on consistent playing.

Thousands of Alumni Attend
Princeton Game

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 8.—The first of the eastern gridiron classics today between Princeton and Harvard attracted thousands of alumni from all parts of the country.

Harvard entered the game the favorite, but despite this and the loss of Keck, Princeton's star left tackle, through an injury, Orange and Black supporters placed their confidence in the fighting spirit of the Tigers and declared they expected them to win.

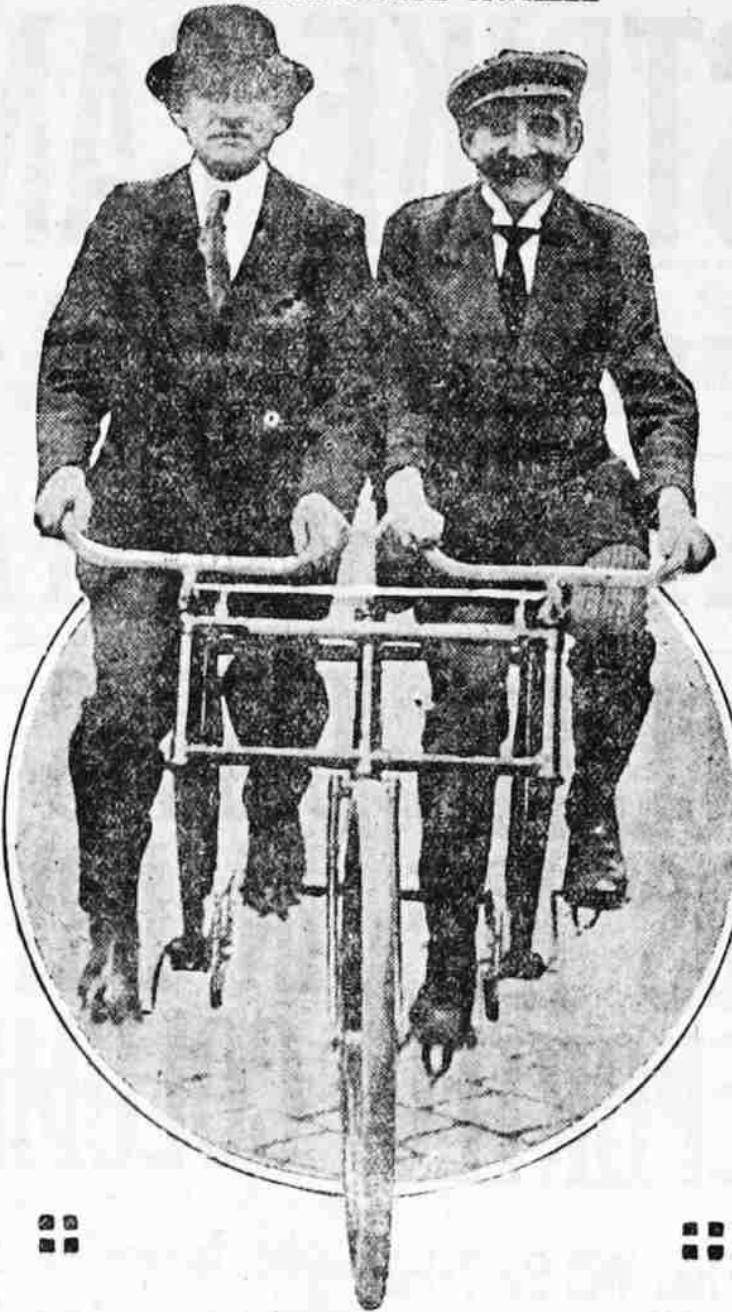

U. OF M.
MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—The University of Minnesota clashed with the Illinois aggregation in one of the two important conference games of the day. Three Minnesota stars, Hartel, Phillips and Gerow—probably will be unable to start because of injuries which have kept them out on the side lines all week. The Illinois team was reported in good shape.

U. OF C. IS FAVORITE.
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 8.—The University of California football team ruled a heavy favorite in the game here today with the University of Southern California, but the Trojans have already won two victories this season when it was thought they barely had a chance and a third victory was not considered out of the question, and hoped for a third.

WASHINGTON-OREGON GAME.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—Both the Washington State college and the University of Oregon football teams faced their game here today cherishing hopes of the Pacific coast intercollegiate championship for 1919. The Washington team was crippled by the inability of Dick Hanley, star half back, to play. Both teams included members of last year's champion Mare Island marine team. Neither has been defeated this year.

OKLAHOMA IS VOTING ON THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 8.—Oklahoma voters of the fifth congressional district, both men and women, went to the polls today to ballot indirectly for, or against the League of Nations, and the Wilson administration in general. The weather was reported cloudy and rainy throughout the district.

The pro-league and anti-league questions are represented respectively by Claude Weaver, Democratic nominee, and J. W. Harrold, Republican nominee, made vacant by the death of Representative Joe B. Thompson of the fifth Oklahoma district.

Weaver made his race on a platform pledged to support the league of nations and President Wilson's policies in general while Harrold is pledged to the league of nations, peace treaty and other administration policies.

A Yard of Health

Is there anything in the whole wide world you'd rather give your family than health? Is there anything else that takes the place of health?

Did you know that by spreading health in your city you give that priceless gift—good health—to your family?

And did you know that you can spread health, just as you can spread disease?

Just a word now and then, spoken at the right time, starts somebody to thinking. Sometimes even a word isn't necessary. A tiny act may do as well. Your neighbor sees the act, wonders why you do it, and unconsciously begins imitating you.

All the habits in the world, good and bad, are acquired. Why not try acquiring good health habits? Why not set the example to your neighbor so that he acquires the same kind of habits?

Get the habit of covering your coughs and sneezes. That's the courteous thing to do, of course. It also is the sanitary thing to do. An uncovered cough or sneeze is more deadly than a concealed weapon. Influenza was spread last winter by the thousands of persons who did not cover their coughs and sneezes.

Take fresh air and exercise. Practice what you preach and then watch how many of your friends follow your lead. Fresh air and exercise have prevented many an illness.

The big problem of public health, greater now than ever before in the history of the world, is just spreading health instead of disease. Every person living is responsible for the spread of one or the other, whether he realizes it or not. Everybody can help to make his community health, or he can remain indifferent and thereby help to spread disease.

Never before in the world has there been a greater need for preaching and practicing—the doctrine of health. The question has been presented to America in its baldest aspect by the revelations of the war and reconstruction.

Are you a doctor, a nurse, a health instructor, a teacher, a professional social worker, already enlisted in public service? Or are you just a plain citizen? Either way, you want to be well yourself, and you want your family and friends to be well.

John W. Jacobs, executive secretary of the Utah Public Health association, announced this week that organization for the annual Red Cross Seal sale of the association in practically every county of Utah. Mr. Jacobs has just returned from a trip through the southern part of the state, and C. M. Patton, who was loaned to the Utah Public Health association by the National Tuberculosis association, returned yesterday from the northern counties.

Both Mr. Patton and Mr. Jacobs report a splendid spirit in the counties which they visited and found the men and women who accepted the chairmanship willing and anxious to help in furthering the work of the Utah Public Health association. The fact that the association is preparing to inaugurate a campaign of public health nursing is said to have stimulated interest throughout the state and has helped greatly.

Salt Lake county has not as yet been organized, but all plans are under way and the announcement will be made in a few days. The committee for Ogden is also selecting its organization for the Seal sale, and Mrs. E. E. Bristol, chairman, stated that the Ogden sale promises to be unusually successful. The following chairmen for counties were announced by Mr. Jacobs:

The Peace Conference was about as much of a health resort for the president as Siberia is for some "Yanks" just now.

We are about convinced that if a man is a public servant we aren't supposed to know anything else about him.

Conservation is a poor excuse for a chronic attack of "cold feet."
